

HOW TO DRAW A GRAPHIC NOVEL

Part 2 – The Drawing!

Figure out what to draw.

- Read through the story you wrote and figure out what the most important parts of the story are.
 - You'll want to draw those most important parts.
- Remember your setting and if that setting changes.
- Each box will need a background depending on the setting.

Start Drawing

- Start with drawing the background of the box.
- Add in your characters.
- Add in their word bubbles (or dialogue bubbles).

Start Writing

- Neatly, write what they're saying to each other.
- Write in any action that you aren't illustrating
 - This can be a change in time or location.
 - Or action words (Pow, Boom, Crash)
